turned off prior to the service.*

Good Friday and the Way of the Cross

On Good Friday we remember the crucifixion of our Lord Jesus Christ. The liturgy is sparse, and there is no Eucharist. The services are filled with silence. We mark with solemnity Christ's journey to the cross and then rest uncomfortably in the time in which he died. In silence we mark his absence.

In today's liturgy, we join pilgrims from all over the world who have for hundreds of years participated in the ancient liturgy by walking the Via Dolorosa (literally, the "painful way" or the "way of suffering"). And in doing so we remember the final moments of Christ's life and his ultimate sacrifice for us.

Motet

Crux Fidelis

John IV of Portugal

Crux fidelis, inter omnes arbor una nobilis: nulla silva talem profert, fronde, flore, germine. Dulce lignum, dulces clavos, dulce pondus sustinet. (translation: Faithful cross, above all other, One and only noble tree: None in foliage, none in blossom, None in fruit thy peer may be. Sweetest wood and sweetest iron, Sweetest weight is hung on thee!)

Opening Devotions

Officiant: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Officiant: Lord, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy. (repeat 3x)

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Versicle: We will glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Response: In whom is our salvation, our life and resurrection.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The procession goes to the First Station.

The First Station: Jesus is condemned to death

As soon as it was morning, the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation; and they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him to Pilate. And they all condemned him and said, "He deserves to die." When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. Then he handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ,_____ and we bless_ you,

All

V. God did not spare his own Son:

R. But delivered him up for us all.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

Ho-ly God Ho-ly and migh-ty Ho-ly im-mor-tal one Have mer-cy up on us.

The Second Station: Jesus takes up his Cross

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ,_____ and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly___ cross you have re-deemed the___ world.

Jesus went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. Like a lamb he was led to the slaughter; and like a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he opened not his mouth. Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.

V. The Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all:

R. For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Almighty God, whose beloved son willingly endured the agony and shame of the cross for our redemption: Give us courage to take up our cross and follow him; who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

The Third Station: Jesus falls the first time

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped; but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, and was born in human likeness. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him, and bestowed on him the name which is above every name. Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our Maker, for he is the Lord our God.

V. Surely he has borne our griefs:

R. And carried our sorrows.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

O God, you know us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: Grant us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Fourth Station: Jesus meets his afflicted mother

To what can I liken you, to what can I compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What likeness can I use to comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For vast as the sea is your ruin. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. The Lord will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.

- V. A sword will pierce your own soul also:
- R. And fill your heart with bitter pain.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

O God, who willed that in the passion of your Son a sword of grief should pierce the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary his mother: Mercifully grant that your Church, having shared with her in his passion, may be made worthy to share in the joys of his resurrection; who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Anthem

Were You There

American Spiritual, arr Hunt

Were you there when they crucified my Lord? Sometimes it causes me to tremble. Were you there when they crucified my Lord? Were you there when they nailed him to the tree? Sometimes it causes me to tremble. Were you there when they nailed him to the tree? Were you there when they pierced him in the side?....Were you there when the sun refused to shine?.... Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?...

The Fifth Station: The Cross is laid on Simon of Cyrene

As they led Jesus away, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross to carry it behind Jesus. "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ, and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly_ cross you have re-deemed the_ world.

- V. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me:
R. Cannot be my disciple.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son came not to be served but to serve: Bless all who, following in his steps, give themselves to the service of others; that with wisdom, patience, and courage, they may minister in his Name to the suffering, the friendless, and the needy; for the love of whom who laid down his life for us, your Son our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Ho-ly God Ho-ly and migh-ty Ho-ly im-mor-tal one Have mer-cy up on us.

The Sixth Station: A woman wipes the face of Jesus

We have seen him without beauty or majesty, with no looks to attract our eyes. He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces, he was despised, and we esteemed him not. His appearance was so marred, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of the children of men. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that made us whole, and with his stripes we are healed.

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ, and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly_ cross you have re-deemed the_ world.

V. Restore us, O Lord God of hosts:

R. Show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear the cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ho-ly God Ho-ly and migh-ty Ho-ly im-mor-tal one Have mer-cy up on us.

The Seventh Station: Jesus falls a second time

Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth. For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ,_____ and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly____ cross you have re-deemed the__ world.

- V. But as for me, I am a worm and no man:
 R. Scorned by all and despised by the people.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
Amen.

Ho-ly God Ho-ly and migh-ty Ho-ly im-mor-tal one Have mer-cy up on us.

The Eighth Station: Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem

There followed after Jesus a great multitude of the people, and among them were women who bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning to them said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children."

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ,_____ and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly____ cross you have re-deemed the__ world.

- V. Those who sowed with tears:
 R. Will reap with songs of joy.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Teach your Church, O Lord, to mourn the sins of which it is guilty, and to repent and forsake them; that by your pardoning grace, the results of our iniquities may not be visited upon our children and our children's children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anthem

Drop, Drop, Slow Tears

Kerry Andrew

Drop, drop, slow tears and bathe those beauteous feet, Which brought from heaven the news and Prince of Peace. Cease not, wet eyes, his mercies to entreat; To cry for vengeance sin doth never cease. In you your deep floods drown all my faults and fears; Nor let his eye see sin, but through my tears.

The Ninth Station: Jesus falls a third time

I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of his wrath; he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light. He has besieged me and enveloped me with bitterness and tribulation; he has made me dwell in darkness like the dead of long ago. Though I call and cry for help, he shuts out my prayer. He has made my teeth grind on gravel, and made me cower in ashes. "Remember, O Lord, my affliction and bitterness, the wormwood and the gall!"

- V. He was led like a lamb to the slaughter:
- R. And like a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he opened not his mouth.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

O God, by the passion of your blessed Son you made an instrument of shameful death to be for us the means of life: Grant us so to glory in the cross of Christ, that we may gladly suffer shame and loss for the sake of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Tenth Station: Jesus is stripped of his garments

When they came to a place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull), they offered him wine to drink, mingled with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it. And they divided his garments among them by casting lots. This was to fulfill the scripture which says, "They divided my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing."

V. They gave me gall to eat:

R. And when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Lord God, whose blessed Son our Savior gave his body to be whipped and his face to be spit upon: Give us grace to accept joyfully the sufferings of the present time, confident of the glory that shall be revealed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Eleventh Station: Jesus is nailed to the Cross

When they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him; and with him they crucified two criminals, one on the right, the other on the left, and Jesus between them. And the scripture was fulfilled which says, "He was numbered with the transgressors."

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ, and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly_ cross you have re-deemed the_ world.

V. They pierce my hands and my feet:

R. They stare and gloat over me.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So clothe us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name. Amen.

Ho-ly God Ho-ly and migh-ty Ho-ly im-mor-tal one Have mer-cy up on us.

The Twelfth Station: Jesus dies on the Cross

When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And when Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished!" And then, crying with a loud voice, he said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." And he bowed his head, and handed over his spirit.

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ,_____ and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly___ cross you have re-deemed the___ world.

V. Christ for us became obedient unto death:

R. Even death on a cross.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; who lives and reigns now and forever. Amen.

Ho-ly God Ho-ly and migh-ty Ho-ly im-mor-tal one Have mer-cy up on us.

The Thirteenth Station: The body of Jesus is placed in the arms of his mother.

All you who pass by, behold and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow. My eyes are spent with weeping; my soul is in tumult; my heart is poured out in grief because of the downfall of my people. "Do not call me Naomi (which means Pleasant), call me Mara (which means Bitter); for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me."

Cantor

We a - dore_ you, O Christ,_____ and we bless_ you,

All

be - cause by you hol - ly___ cross you have re-deemed the___ world.

V. Her tears run down her cheeks:

R. And she has none to comfort her.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

Lord Jesus Christ, by your death you took away the sting of death: Grant to us your servants so to follow in faith where you have led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in you and wake up in your likeness; for you tender mercies; sake. Amen.

The Fourteenth Station: Jesus is laid in the tomb

When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb.

V. You will not abandon me to the grave:
R. Nor let your holy One see corruption.

Officiant: Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

O God, your blessed Son was laid in a tomb in a garden, and rested on the Sabbath day; Grant that we who have been buried with him in the waters of baptism may find our perfect rest in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Anthem

Wondrous Cross

Philip Wilby

When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of Glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the cross of Christ my God; All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his blood. See from his head, his hands his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down; Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, Or thons compose so rich a crown? Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were an off-ring far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Concluding Prayers before the Altar

Officiant: Savior of the world, by your cross and precious blood you have redeemed us:

People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech you, O Lord.

Let us pray. (A period of silence follows)

We thank you, heavenly Father, that you have delivered us from the dominion of sin and death and brought us into the kingdom of your Son; and we pray that, as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his love he may raise us to eternal joys; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

To Christ our Lord who loves us, and washed us in his own blood, and made us a kingdom of priests to serve his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

At the end of the service, please depart in silence.
